07:00 pm	08:30 pm	08:30 pm

Saturday	Saturday	Saturday
Sunday	Sunday	Sunday

Shops opening hours

Some crucial knowledge when shopping in Paris is knowing typical store opening hours.

Most large stores are open from 9am to 7pm Monday through Saturday.

Smaller stores typically open from 10:30am to 7pm and sometimes close between 12pm and 2pm for lunch.

The weekend however, can be problematic. A lot of stores are closed on Sunday, so make sure you take that into account when planning.

During sales periods or Christmas season some shops will extend their opening hours to later (9pm) and will remain opened on Sundays.

Practical tips about Shopping in Paris

Late opening hours

After 8PM Paris can feel like a ghost town as every business except grocery stores and restaurants will be closed until the next day.

If you want to do some shopping after 8PM, here is our shortlist for late night shopping in Paris:

Shopping on Sundays in Paris

The Marais area is a good place to start because most of it's shops will be open. Galeries Lafayette department store is also open on Sundays until 8 PM, which is super rare in Paris. Champs Elysées avenue in another area of Paris where most of the shops remain open on Sundays.

The biggest shopping malls are also open on Sundays.

This includes Beaugrenelle, one of the city's newest shopping centers, located in the 15th arrondissement.

The Carrousel du Louvre is another option, the museum remains open as well so you can combine the two. In the center of the city there is also the Forum des Halles, the sprawling underground mall that has recently undergone a transformation.

Read more about it here.

Sales in Paris

There are two major sales periods for stores in Paris. Winter sales start on the 3rd Wednesday of January and last for about a month. The Summer sale period starts on the first Wednesday of July and also lasts for about a month.

If you're not in Paris during these dates, you can still find deals and sales almost year round, but you'll have to know where to look! Parisians love their sales and will often wait in line early in the morning to get the best deals.

Size converter for clothes/ shoes/ lingerie

French lingerie sizes are calculated differently than in other countries. When shopping for clothes, shoes, lingerie, you may want to take this information into account!

For shoes, France has a different sizing system than in the US or UK. They use larger numbers and half sizes are rarely used. The advantage is that the size range is slightly larger so you're sure to find the perfect fit!

For lingerie, measurement are made in centimeters.

Here are a few charts to help you find your size in France:

INSIDR Clothing size

UK	US	JAPAN	EUROPE
6/8	6	7-9	36
10	8	9-11	38
12	10	11-13	40

All you need to know to prepare for Shopping in Paris

Exchange/ Refund

The exchange policy in Paris is probably similar to the stores you shop at everyday. Most purchases can be exchanged or refunded within 1 month.
Detailed information concerning exchange and refund policies can be found on your receipt. If you don't speak French, ask the staff at the store or your hotel to explain.

You must keep your receipt! No receipt often means no refund and the French are real sticklers for this rule. Clothing must be in perfect condition in order to return or exchange items.

Detaxe

Understanding the tax refund service is helpful in planning the budget for your Paris shopping trip. When you purchase an item in France, a VAT tax of 20% (sales tax) is included in the price. Before leaving Paris you can collect your tax refund at any local airport. This is called "detaxe" in French which gives back about 12% of the taxes paid.

To be eligible for the service you must be from outside of the EU, be over 15 years old, and have spent at least 175.01€ in the same store, on the same day.

The process is super easy. Always ask for your "detaxe" form at the store after purchase then have it stamped and signed. And before leaving France, at any international airport, submit your Detaxe form into a PABLO machine. You will need the Detaxe form, the receipt, and your purchases. You will recieve a refund on your credit card within a few weeks.

In Paris, you can get an immediate tax refund in a handful of stores like Galeries Lafayette department store and Parapharmacy Monge the health and beauty specialist in Paris.

Top shopping malls in Paris

The biggest and best places to go for your one stop shop needs are to one of Paris' many shopping malls. Here are our favourites.

Beaugrenelle

Beaugrenelle

In comparison to the Forum des Halles, Beaugrenelle is one of the newest shopping malls in Paris which can be found very close to the Eiffel Tower.
This shopping hub features many brands such as Guerlain, Baccarat, and La Pâtisserie des Rêves, as well as a lot of international clothing brands and one of the biggest Marks & Spencer stores Paris has to offer.
The shopping mall also features many lovely restaurants and a cinema!

- Metro stop: Charles Michels (Line 10)

IG:@beaugrenelle

Forum des Halles

Forum des Halles

Forum des Halles is the oldest shopping mall in Paris and has recently been renovated, making it better than ever.

Located in the first arrondissement of Paris is it central and massive with over 160 stores and services.

Alongside the fantastic French brands found in the mall, there are also many shops which sell international brands. We recommend going to Sept Cinq for souvenirs and cute items or presents that are made exclusivley in Paris. Sept Cinq also sells delicious coffee – perfect for a break during all that shopping or for a quick lunch in the centre of Paris. Another highlight, L'Exception is a very delightful designer concept store.

- Opening hours:
  Monday – Saturday 10am – 8pm
  Sunday 11am – 6pm
- Address: 101 porte Berger, 75001
- Metro stop: Chatelet-les-Halles (Lines 1/4/11/14)

Top shopping malls in Paris

Carrousel du Louvre

Carrousel du Louvre is high-end shopping located underneath the Louvre museum. It is also the best way to enter the museum and avoid the long lines by the pyramid. It was opened in 1994 and is full of shops with hundreds of typically French brands and products. You'll find traditional products as well as unique items that make awesome souvenirs. We especially love Pylones, Perigot and the Comedie Française stores as well as cosmetic brands including Caudalie and Fragonard.

- Opening hours: Monday – Sunday 10am - 8pm
- Address: 99 rue de Rivoli, 75001
- Metro stop: Palais Royal – Musée du Louvre (Lines 1/7)

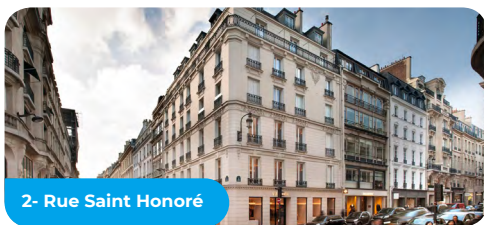
Where to shop for luxury goods in Paris?

1- Galeries Lafayette Paris Haussmann

On the ground floor and first floor of the main building, various luxury labels and the best new design talents are showcased to inspire your wardrobe ideas. Women's Fashion, Luxury & Designer, Jewelry, Accessories and Exceptional Fragrances can all be found.

Brands available:
Alaia, Acne, Balenciaga, Cartier, Carven, Céline, Chloé, Chanel, David Yurman, Dior, DSquared, Fendi, Givenchy, Gucci, Isabel Marant, Jean Paul Gaultier, Lanvin, Louis Vuitton, Maison Martin Margiela, Marc Jacobs, Miu Miu, Moncler, Prada, Proenza Schouler, Saint Laurent Paris, Stella McCartney, Valentino, Van Cleef and Arpels, Vanessa Bruno, Vivienne Westwood.


2- Rue Saint Honoré

Rue Saint Honoré is one of the most iconic streets for luxury and cutting-edge fashion in Paris. For 20 years, the concept store Colette was the epicenter of world's fashion. Colette is no longer there but has been replaced by a brand new Saint Laurent Paris flagship.

This street has hosted the biggest and newest fashion brands flagships as well as iconic French luxury brands such as Goyard (famous for its suitcases) or Annick Goutal (fragrances and cosmetics). It is also the district where Mademoiselle Chanel created her first atelier and set up her first store which has remained opened since on Rue Cambon.

Brands available:
Chantal Thomass, Chanel, Balenciaga, Dior, Fendi, Hermes, Saint Laurent, Louis Vuitton, Moynat, Goyard, Kate Spade

Luxury shopping in Paris

Right by Avenue des Champs Elysées, there is the N°1 street for luxury goods in Paris with some of the nicest 5 stars hotels. And that's why at the end of WWII, Monsieur Christian Dior decided to open a giant store on Avenue Montainge! He was a true visionary, these days there is not one luxury brand without a store on Avenue Montaigne!

Brands available:
Chanel, Gucci, Bottega Veneta, Nina Ricci, Dolce Gabbana, Louis Vuitton, Céline, Loewe, Pucci, Fendi, Givenchy, Elie Saab and of course Dior.

Located in the 6th district right by Saint Germain des Près, Rue de Grenelle is the most confidential luxury fashion street. You may bump into famous French actresses such as Cathrine Deneuve or Charlotte Gainsbourg hidden behind big glasses and casually shopping.

Brands available:
Moschino, Saint Laurent Paris, Sonia Rykiel, Maison Martin Margiela, Issey Miyake, Carven, Prada, La Perla, Paul Smith, Berlutti, Céline

Women's clothing

Paris is a true heaven for Women's clothing shopping! We have already listed our favorite districts and itineraries for shopping in Paris, and most of the places we recommend are for our shopping sisters ;)
In this section we'll recommend our favorite brands.

Our favorites brands and designers for Women shopping in Paris

1- Valentine Gauthier

Valentine Gauthier is the name of the contemporary, urban and refined style clothing brand. And it's also the name of the founder, creator, and designer of the brand!
The designer emphasizes that her aim is to create an ideal and desirable closet. The secret of her work lays behind the quality of materials used in her atelier including the fabrics, techniques, composition and also the craftsmanship. Her design doesn't necessarily reflect one style yet you can see the perfect juxtapositions of opposite aspects. She performs utterly amazing especially on this. There are many feminine pieces in her collections with masculine cues.

- Address: 58 rue Charlot, 75003
- Metro stop: Temple (Line 3)

2- Sézane

Created in 2015 by Morgane Sezalory this brand is the quintessence of Parisian chic. Sezalory made herself famous by releasing monthly limited quantity women's clothing online that was simple but extremely elegant.
Simple, perfectly cut, good quality fabrics, and delicate details is the Sezane recipe for success! It is now possible to shop all the items in their flagship store near Grands Boulevards district named L'Appartement.

- Address: 1 rue Saint-Fiacre, 75002
- Metro stop: Grands Boulevards (Lines 8/9)

Where to buy shoes in Paris

Luxury shoes

1- Louboutin

Nothing is more chic than a pair of red bottom Christian Louboutin heels. Each pair of shoes in handmade in either Paris or Milan. The official Christian Louboutin store is located in the 1st arrondissement, rue Jean-Jacques Rousseau. The Staff is extremely knowledgeable and helpful. The store, however, tends to be packed on Saturdays and is closed on Sundays. Aim to visit during the week for a calmer, more enjoyable Louboutin shopping experience. Know that Louboutin shoe sizes run small! You'll probably need at least 1 or 1.5 sizes up from your usual shoe size.

- Address: 19 rue Jean-Jacques Rousseau, 75001

Men’s clothing

Shopping is for everyone! There are marvelous places to shop for men here! Here is INSIDR’s selection of the best menswear shops in Paris! Whether it’s for you, a cousin, boyfriend, father, or a friend – you can find something for every man in these amazing shops.

1- The Nines

The idea and the concept behind the Nines brand has come a long way. Erwan and Renaud have worked on different projects in different countries. In 2012, they came up with the online store of the Nines. theFollowing year, they opened the first store! The Nines is an extensive brand that has many unique and dedicated product lines including the cufflinks, belt, and shirts of the founders. Within a few years, the collection got bigger with the addition of suits, special edition wedding suits, and bow ties. Other stores in Paris followed as well! The precision, customer care, meticulous selection of textiles and processing are what make The Nines special. The stores are a total gem for gentlemen! Do not miss while you are in Paris!

- Address: 162 rue du Faubourg-Saint-Honoré, 75008

Iconic French brands for Men
Don't forget the iconic French brands that have been dressing Men for decades! Aigle and Saint James have items for the whole family. The value for your money is outstanding with quality-made pieces at affordable prices. Petit Bateau is another iconic French brand whose origins date back to 1893! There is also of course Lacoste, one of the country's most well-known brands. The famous crocodile brand was created in 1933 and still remains the best choice for Mens' everyday chic.

Sport Jerseys
Whether you're a hardcore soccer fan, rugby is more your style, or you wouldn't miss the French Open for the world, you can find your favorite French sports memorabilia in Paris. The main chain stores, or team-specific stores (Paris Saint Germain, Stade Français, ets.), will have both player and team jerseys as well as accessories. Department stores, including the Galeries Lafayette, also carry a wide selection of sports gear and French national team items. No matter what team you support, a sports souvenir is a great way to remember your Parisian travels.

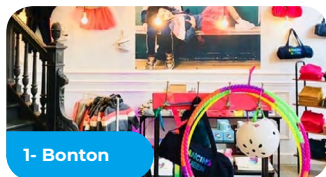
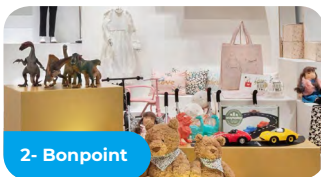
Kids clothing and shopping for kids in Paris

Check out our selection of the best shops and brands for kids in Paris.

Favorite brands for kids in Paris




Bonton is a French lifestyle brand for children and babies. Irene Cohen opened the first boutique of Bonton in Paris in 2001 and never looked back! Bonton now has many stores in different locations and it is a favorite of families with small kids and babies. In Bonton, you can find whatever you need for a baby or a kid. Clothes, shoes, books, activities, cutlery sets, toys, furniture for nurseries, decorations, baby supplies, linens, school supplies, child crafts, and art materials – literally whatever they need is here at Bonton!

- Address: 82 rue de Grenelle, 75007
- Metro stop: Varenne (Line 10/13/14)

We definitely recommend picking up some adorable and sophisticated French clothing for your little ones during your trip. Paris' well-dressed citizens include even the youngest ones. One of our favorite brands is Petit Bateau, the classic French children's clothing brand. Kids look absolutely adorable in the iconic marinière.
Bonpoint is perfect if you are looking for items for a fancier occasion.

- Address: 6 rue de Tournon, 75006
- Metro stop: Saint Sulpice (Line 14)

Petit Bateau is an iconic French brands which has been around for a century providing the best quality of clothing for families! With 100% soft coton knitwear tshirts, underwear, and pajamas, it is one of the best place to go for baby clothing shopping in Paris. They make the kind of clothes that never ages and pass accross siblings! That is also the best choice to get a real French Marinière (striped shirt).

- Address: 53 bis rue de Sèvres, 75006
- Metro stop: Sèvres - Babylone (Lines 10/12)

Kids clothing and shopping for kids in Paris

Favorite stores for kids in Paris

4- Galeries Lafayette Kids floor

The 5th floor of the Galeries Lafayette is as close to shopping heaven as you can get and it's a completely kid-friendly zone. Your little ones are sure to love the 370 square meter Disney store inside the Galeries, which is far less busy than the one on Champs Elysées and where you will find exclusive toys and clothing.
Jacadi, Cadet Rousselle, and IKKS combine everyday options with a touch of sophistication. Getting kids to be patient while shopping and trying on items is a pain so we recommend heading to the Galeries Lafayette where you'll find all brands in one spot. You can even tempt your little ones with a visit to the Disney store as a treat after! This floor also has by far the best facilities for kids and toddlers. The fully equipped changing rooms on the 5th floor has saved more than one parent from restroom desperation. You will also love the fully equipped nursery space with a micro-wave and changing tables.

5- Le ciel est à tout le monde

Originally a kite-shop, Le Ciel est a Tout le Monde is a specialty kid shop located in the 5th arrondissement in Paris.You can find many things here for children! Unlike a toy shop filled with plastic dolls or cars, here you have a chance to purchase unique gifts for children. The products are perfect especially for children below 7 years old as the main focus of the shop is babies and toddlers. You can find cutlery sets, pajamas, clothing, cushions, little cloth tents, tricycles, wooden toys, and toy organization equipment all created for the lovely children!

- Address: 10 rue Gay-Lussac, 75005
- Metro stop: Luxembourg (RER B)

6- Petit Souk

Petit Souk is a lovely concept-store for kids with toys, clothing, cutlery sets, decorations, and all kind of supplies just for little ones.
If you are looking for a special gift for kids to bring home, Petit Souk is a must go! You will also find some of the best French toys brands: like Janod and Jeujura known for their traditional wooden toys made in France.

- Address: 57 rue Notre-Dame-des-Champs, 75006
- Metro stop: Vavin (Line 4)

Vintage Shopping in Paris
Luxury Vintage Shopping

Here is INSIDR's selection of the best vintage clothing stores in Paris! For affordable vintage shopping, the district to explore is Chatelet from Rue Rambuteau, to past Centre Pompidou, and all the way to Hotel de Ville by Rue de la Verrerie. Vintage shopping in Paris is also a once in a lifetime chance to find some luxurious goods for discounted prices!

1- Kiliwatch

Kiliwatch is a true vintage institution in Paris. Fashion magazine editors have been shopping there for decades. Because it is the largest store for vintage items but also, the selection has been the widest in Paris for 30 years with vintage items from all over the world as well as typically French pieces.

- Address: 64 rue Tiquetonne, 75002
- Metro stop: Chatlet (Lines 1/4/7/11/14)

2- Thanx God I'm a VIP

Also known as TGV by local Parisian people- it is one the most beautiful vintage shops that you will see in your life. The shop is very centrally located as well; it is only a couple of minutes away from Place de la République. Unlike most vintage shops where you have to dig through piles of low-quality clothes to find something, TGV has quite the opposite situation. Here the organization of the shop is perfect, everything is in the place where you can easily access or see it.
The items are mostly from designer or even luxury brands. Hérmes, Chanel, YSL, Givenchy are only some of the designer brands you can find at TGV.

- Address: 12 rue de Lancry, 75010
- Metro stop: République (Lines 3/5/8/9/11)

3- Rose Market Vintage

3- Rose Market Vintage

Rose Market is one the best place in Paris to go for vintage shopping. The shop has so many vintage items from these brands: Saint-Laurent, Chanel, Givenchy, Céline, Dior and also some foreign ones such as Versace or Armani. If you are a hunter of special closet pieces, Rose Market is a must-go.

- Address: 5 rue Hippolyte Lebas, 75009
- Metro stop: Notre-Dame-De-Lorette (Line 12)

Vintage Shopping in Paris
Thrift shops & cheap vintage stores

4- Kilo Store

This well known vintage store comes with a twist, you pay for your findings by weight! Each item has a color tag which corresponds to the price of that item when you pay for it. You are guaranteed to find some real retro gems in this place, and the chance to pick up a real bargain- if it doesn't weigh too much!

- Address: 69 rue de la Verrerie, 75004
- Metro stop: Hôtel De Ville (Lines 1/11)
5- Freep'star

Right by Kilo Store, there is Freep'star which is a Fashion student's favorite spot to dig for their next outfit! It is very cheap, prices depend on the color of the tags. When searching carefully you might even be able to find a designer piece.

- Address: 1 rue de la Verrerie, 75004
- Metro stop: Hôtel de Ville (Lines 1/11)

6- La Textilerie

La Textilerie is more than just a regular clothing store; it is an atelier, a café, a clothing store, and even a recycling point. You can shop second hand vintage items in good conditions for very reasonable prices and give them a second life.
In addition to that, things which don't make it to the racks of the store are still used in workshops or in the atelier for crafters working on a project. It is definitely a magical place to be.

- Address: 22 rue du Château-Landon, 75010
- Metro stop: Louis Blanc (Lines 7/7Bis)

7- Saint Ouen Paris Flea Market

This market is the biggest flea market in Europe and is great fun. it is composed of many smaller markets, so you can be sure to find everything; from vintage clothing, to furniture of all kinds, art, cheap knock-offs, cutlery, jewellery, toys etc. Our favortie market there are Marché Serpette, Marché Paul Bert and Marché Vernaison. Check out our map of the flea market and here is a full guide to prepare your day at the flea market.

- Opening days:
  Saturday to Sunday 10am - 5.30pm
  Monday 11am - 5pm
- Address: 138/140 rue des Rosiers, 93400
- Metro stop: Porte De Clignancourt (Line4)

- Address: 3 rue de Birague, 75004
- Metro stop: Bastille (Lines: 1/5/8)

Souvenirs Shopping from the supermarket

Pop into a supermarket nearest your accommodation and follow this guide to the best French souvenirs from the supermarket for authentic and affordable souvenirs!

1- Tapenade and spreads

The southern region of France is famous for their production of olives. Tapenade is one of the most delicious forms of their plentiful olive production! The blend of black olives with extra-virgin olive oil, garlic, and chili powder creates an extremely rich flavor. This olive spread is perfect to be smeared on a baguette while enjoying apéro back at home to remember your fantastic trip!

2- LU Biscuits

LU is a French biscuit brand that has existed since 1846. It is a staple cookie in French homes and you should not miss out on them (especially their speculoos ones!). LU offers a range of cookies from traditional butter biscuits, chocolate biscuits (Prince and Petit Écolier), to various flavored soft cakes. Whichever your favorite may be, these French biscuits make an incredibly delicious and cheap French souvenir to bring back home.

3- Bonne Maman jam

This brand may not be foreign to you, but it is definitely a traditional French brand that can be found in all supermarkets. They offer a variety of jam variants, in addition to brownies, apple pies and other sweet cakes that probably do not exist in your home country. And to top it all off, the packaging even looks like a traditional French red plaid dinner tablecloth!

4- Maille Moutarde

French Mustard is unique and you will find various flavours: super strong, “à l’ancienne” with mustard seeds, with basil, and with wild onions. You can find cute small packages at the super market. Or at the Maille store within Carrousel du Louvre.

5- Savon de Marseille

Savon de Marseille is a typical bar of soap from Marseille in the South of France. But you don’t need to go all the way to Marseille! You can find this soap at almost every supermarket in Paris. Le Petit Marseillais has plenty of soap varieties at affordable prices. In addition, they also have liquid soaps, shampoos, body oils etc.

Gourmet Shopping from Paris

For serious foodie souvenirs here is a top list of what to buy and where to get it ;)

1- Salt

Fleur de sel forms on the delicate crust on the surface of seawater and is the perfect gourmet touch to any meal. Sel de Guérande or Sel de Camargue should be your N°1 choice when looking for salt to bring home.

2- Truffle

Choose from truffle salt from La Maison de la Truffe, truffle oil or a dried truffle and risotto mix. You can find all the best truffles prod-cuts to bring home at Maison de la Truffe corner at Galeries Lafayette Gourmet. More truffle tips here.

3- Chocolates & Caramels

Chocolates are the perfect sou-venirs to bring home. And for those with a sweet tooth, Cara-mel Beurre Salé, or salted caramel makes any dessert even better.

4- Foie Gras

Though controversial, foie gras is a French delicacy and makes for a wonderful souvenir or gift for those who enjoy it. It can be enjoyed whole (entier), cooked (cuit), semi-cooked (mi-cuit), as a mousse, paté, or fresh (frais). It's often served with fig jam and pairs nicely with a white wine.

5- Wine & liquor

Red, White, Rosé, Champagne... the options are endless, depend-ing on your tastes and luggage size. Cognac is a great liquor which is cheaper in France than when exported.

INSIDR tips

Where to buy gourmet souvenirs in Paris

You can find all of these items, and many more, at the gourmet section of the Galeries Lafayette depart-ment store which is a true French chefs supermarket with product that you will not find anywhere else. They have regional specialties and super gourmet prod-ucts all year round.
